

07660000 Southwick-Tolland-Granville Regional School District

December 10, 2020

Based on the data submitted in the November Student Learning Time (SLT) survey, Southwick-Tolland-Granville Regional School District is preliminarily cleared to meet the new SLT standards set by DESE. Per these standards,

- Remote districts must provide an average of at least 40 hours of synchronous instruction over 2 academic weeks and have no fully asynchronous days in their schedule
- Hybrid districts must provide an average of at least 35 hours of live* instruction over 2 academic weeks
- Blended districts (some combination of In-person, Hybrid, and Remote at various grade levels) must meet the regulation that corresponds with each grade level’s instructional model

*Live instruction is defined as the sum of in-person and remote synchronous instruction.

Please see below for additional information related to the data submitted in your November SLT Survey response. As a reminder, this data reflects your instructional model and schedule as of the week of November 2, 2020. Blank data indicates no survey response.

While this report indicates a preliminary clearance determination based on the four grades collected in the SLT survey, districts are responsible for ensuring that SLT requirements are met across all grades served for the appropriate instructional model.
